	of training and closure of facilities. Ian updated that the 1.1. Coaching Certificate is now being offered free of charge for anyone still to complete this. John Goulding enquired about the possibility of putting a post on Facebook to gauge the level of interest regarding training for 2015s. This would allow the club to ascertain if a team could be formed and if there were parents willing to support with coaching once training resumes. 6. 2012 Match Strips Following Lynn managing to secure sponsorship of match day strips for the 2012s from Route 74, it was agreed these will not be ordered until there is a clearer idea of when training/matches will resume in the event they no longer fit the players. John Goulding asked if another kit supplier should be considered. It was felt this should be explored and other potential options identified. 7. Rangers On Line Training Course Discussion around a recent Facebook post from Todd regarding a 4 week online training course which costs £20.00 per head. It was agreed parents could access and pay for this independently if their child was interested in participating. 8. Snoods The prospect of ordering these for players was discussed as they could also be used as face coverings going forward. There was mixed views regarding the benefit of ordering these however agreed the minimum order numbers and delivery time should be confirmed before any final decisions were made.	John to put post on club and Lesmahagow page regarding 2015 training. John Goulding to look into other potential kit suppliers. John Goulding to confirm minimum order numbers and delivery time for club snoods.
