	groups with regards to pitch hire etc. This has increased the financial outgoings and there has also been no fundraising carried out over the past year which would normally boost the finances. Player fees will increase when training resumes after the summer break to cover all associated costs.
5.	Training Training will finish this week/next week for all age groups for the summer break. 2007s have already finished as they will resume training/matches earlier than other age groups. Following a recent coaches meeting, the question was raised about organising a team day out for each of the age groups. Following discussion it was agreed each age group would be given £5 per child and coaches could decide how this would be spent.
6.	Grants There are two live applications for grants, one of which is from the SFA and will contribute towards the 2015 training fees and kits.
7.	AGM Following the AGM, the updated constitution requires to be adopted and signed. This will take place when face to face meetings resume.
8.	Highland Games On hold.
9.	Fundraising Discussion around possible fundraising events – collective event for parents and individual events for various age groups. Everyone will give consideration to fundraising ideas prior to the next meeting. Football cards will be distributed on the first week back of training.
10.	AOB Acknowledgement made that attendance at AGM was encouraging.
